Featured speakers

Dr Natalie Leitão is the Academic Principal at Sheridan Institute of Higher Education. With extensive experience from the Early Years through to the tertiary level, Natalie has been closely engaged with the broader education community throughout her career. She is currently Chair of Carmel Adventist College School Council. Natalie is passionate about sharing the gospel and nurturing authentic relationships.

Ivan Mills is the Director of Christ For All Children (CFAC), a non-denominational, non-profit, missionary organisation which serves the Body of Christ. Ivan has been a full-time Children's Minister since 1984. His passion is to reach the lost. Having ministered to children and trained workers in many nations, he knows that the harvest is truly ripe. Ivan has ministered to children and trained leaders in many nations throughout the world.
